JOE MURPHY TO FIGHT TUESDAY

(By Doc Billy Morris)

Joe Murphy, one of the most popular boys that ever drew on a glove in Tonopah, will be seen in action in a special event at the Airdome next Tuesday night.

Joe, who is one of our own products, is a bit fat but has enough of what is known as "class" to carry him through in a short round bout.
His opponent has not been chosen as yet, but it will be some tried mil-liewider who will bring out all that the Stanford student possesses.

From the training camps of Joe Welch and Saffor Lloyd comes the most glowing reports of the fine form displayed by both boxers in training for their 25-round contest.

As both boys have appeared in Tonopah before, they are accustomed to the high altitude and will have no excuses to offer on that score. On the occasion of their first meeting they complained of the atmospheric changes, but never the less went through a hard twenty sessions of glove slinging. In making this match neither seemed to give this phase of their coming clash a thought and five more rounds was added when it seemed that nothing short of a finish contest would satisfy either boxer.

Fans All Smoked Up

Judging by the turnout of fans who have visited the fighters in their daily training routine, it can be safely said that one of the largest houses that ever witnessed a contest in To-nopah will greet the main eventers at bell time.

The earnestness with which Welch and Lloyd have dug into their conditioning grind has made a hit with the sports who pounce up to see two well trained boxers in action. The fans of Tonopah are probably just as well posted on the affairs of the ring as any in wide land and fully realize that if they are to get a run for their money, the boxers advertised to appear must prepare for a contest.

Nothing but praise can be heard on this score from the most vocal follower of fistie doings regarding the way both Welch and Lloyd are behaving. On the contrary there are many who think that the boxers are a bit too strenuous in their conditioning methods.

Road Work and Boxing

Daily for the past week Lloyd and Welch have hit the road in the morning. In the afternoon, the indoor schedule was put on, which invariably wound up with boxing. Both are showing the effect of their hard grind and are becoming a bit snappish and cranky—the sure sign of approaching acme of form—we are informed by some of the world's greatest trainers.

To give the fans who do not find it convenient to visit the boys during the day time a chance to see them shape up, a monster workout is planned for Sunday evening. At least 15 rounds of boxing will be put on by local boys and both Welch and Lloyd will be seen with their sparring pads.

ARMENIAN MASSACRE OBSERVED BY GIRL

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, June 13.—One of the most pitiful stories of savagery practiced by Turks or Circassians upon the Armenians deported during the war from their homes into the country of the Arabs is told by Victoria Varshadlian, a girl of 18 years. Her story has been made public here by the American Committee for Armenian and Syrian Relief. The girl was the daughter of a well-to-do merchant who had a shop in Constantinople and another at Nevseher, Turkey, where the family lived.

In her narrative to a British physician she said that her father and four brothers were deported and that her father died while on the journey from a blow inflicted by a gendarme. Carrying their little fortune of $2000 in gold they were marched south to the vicinity of Deir-Es-Zor (probably on the Euphrates river).
There they found a great congregation of refugees, said to number 7000 families.

While at Deir-Es-Zor, Murad or Savara, the girl said twenty Armenian prisoners were taken from among the refugees, bound together, sent away and killed. In the river at Savara she saw one hundred bodies of men, women and children, some with their heads off.

After collecting a ransom, the Mutasarrif ordered the men of the refugees brought before him "to sign a paper." The next day she said she saw the Circassians shoot down three hundred of them. Then the Mutasarrif, Zeki Bey, ordered nine of the bodies of the Armenians placed in the mud and drove his carriage over them. He announced that he would kill all the male refugees over 20 years old. Up to that time her brother had escaped death by bribes, but he was taken away with others and on leaving said to his mother, "Mother, I am going to die. Give me your hand and I will kiss it. Forgive me anything I have done wrong to you, Mother." Her brother was shot before Victoria's eyes.

She declared also that she saw Armenians killed by driving wooden stakes through them, that two were buried alive by the Arabs and that eventually the Circassians began to kill all the women and children with their knives. Her description of this massacre is so pitiful to be told for she gives details of the fiendish manner in which the days accomplished.

After her father was separated from her mother and sent to the tent of an Arab where she remained for two weeks. In that period, she said, she saw two hundred small boys from Meskeneh brought through Deir-Es-Zor to Chaldeah and saw these children killed in various ways and thrown or kicked into the river.

She escaped from the Arab's tent, was recaptured by the Arabs with two other girls from Harput, but later was allowed to go her way.
After a year and a half she reached Aleppo where her story was told.
She has been informed that her mother and one brother escaped from the Circassians or Arabs.
